Nonprofit Solutions Hired to Manage
Minnesota Library Association

March 30, 2009 (St. Paul, Minnesota) – Nonprofit Solutions, Inc., a St. Paul based association management company, has been hired to help manage the Minnesota Library Association (MLA).

MLA's mission is to connect library peers and associates. MLA is comprised of many kinds of libraries and librarians, including public, academic, school, special, multi-type institutional, and others. Friends of the library, trustees, community members, and corporate friends comprise the current 1,100 members.

Nonprofit Solutions will provide MLA with the infrastructure necessary to run all aspects of the organization, including executive director support, meeting and event planning, financial processing, communications design and distribution, and membership management.

"We're continually amazed and impressed by the caliber, quality, and skill of the volunteers and board members that provide the foundation for organizations like MLA," said Kris Finger, MAOL, president of Nonprofit Solutions. "We are looking forward to serving the MLA membership in the coming months and years."

Nonprofit Solutions, Inc. provides high-level support to the boards, volunteers, and members of its nonprofit and association clients. Dedicated to supporting the people who make nonprofits succeed, Nonprofit Solutions is an established leader when it comes to customer service, management, strategic planning, and day-to-day operations.
