Maria Huntley Earns Certified Association Executive Credential

January 28, 2010 (St. Paul, Minnesota) – Nonprofit Solutions is proud to announce that Maria Huntley, President, has earned the Certified Association Executive (CAE™) credential through The American Society of Association Executives. The CAE is the highest professional credential in the association industry. Less than five percent of all association professionals have earned the CAE. Maria began her career with Nonprofit Solutions in December 1998 and officially transitioned to her current role as President in August of 2009. We look forward to the positive impact her new designation and knowledge will have towards client partnerships and the general leadership of Nonprofit Solutions.

To be designated as a Certified Association Executive, an applicant must have a minimum of three years experience in nonprofit organization management and complete a minimum of 75 hours of specialized professional development and activities in association and nonprofit management. More than 3,500 association professionals currently hold the CAE credential. 2010 marks the 50th anniversary of the CAE program.

The American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) is a membership organization of more than 22,000 association executives and industry partners representing more than 11,000 organizations. Its members manage leading trade associations, individual membership societies and voluntary organizations across the United States and in 50 countries around the world. The Center for Association Leadership is the premier provider of learning, knowledge and future-oriented research for the association profession. Together, ASAE & The Center for Association Leadership provides resources, education, ideas and advocacy to enhance the power and performance of the association community.
